way of doing things in official circles and I shall have nothing to say when the required form is observed/* "Do you then want that I should give the order of release written and signed by myself in my own name?"—To this, I nodded assent. He seemed not to see any way open to that, and did not know how to get himself out of this difficulty. My readers can very well guess from the manner in which I was talking that I took him for the real earthly person himself and to me his very apparent difficulty in signing an order in material writing, had no meaning whatsoever and I asked for a written order without in the least suspecting anything aipiss. He appeared to ponder over the matter for a while and then as if to see whether it was possible for him to do anything in the matter, by exercising his powers in the mental plane, so as to bring the matter directly to the notice of His Majesty in England, asked "Who are you?" What are your credentials?" as if from a sub-conscious plane, but finding nothing very definite, such as could impress Hia
